

In this bulletin details are shown of the more important commodities or groups of commodities imported into and exported from South Australia, and the value of such trade with selected overseas countries. Particulars of interstate trade and overseas trade via other states have not been included.

The value of goods imported represents the amount on which duty is payable or would be payable if duty were ad valorem, and the value of goods exported represents the F.O.B. value or its equivalent.

Imports by Countries

The United Kingdom is the main country supplying imports into South Australia. Since 1949/50 direct imports from the United Kingdom have varied between £18.5m. and £36.4m. while the proportion to total imports has fluctuated between 40.0% and 52.2%.

In 1957/58, the United Kingdom supplied 46.4% of total imports, United States 11.9%, India 7.3% and Canada 4.9%, and in each of the last five years, these countries were the source of over two-thirds of total imports.

Exports by Countries

The United Kingdom is the principal country to which goods are exported. Exports to the United Kingdom rose from £27.1m. in 1949/50 to a peak of £55.5m. (45.1% of total exports) in 1952/53, and since then both value and proportion to total value have declined steadily to £31.3m. (31.5%) in 1957/58.

Exports to other countries vary considerably from year to year, but four countries - Japan, United States of America, France and New Zealand - have received over 30% of South Australian exports in recent years. In 1957/58 the respective proportions of total exports to these countries were 11.2%, 9.3%, 8.7% and 7.9%.

Imports - Value

Apart from the year 1951/52 (£93m.) the value of imports into South Australia has since 1949/50 varied between £45m. and £65m. annually. The changes in totals have been influenced mainly by two groups of commodities:-

(1) Metal and metal manufactures, which comprises nearly half of all imports. The most variable commodities in this group are Motor Vehicles and Iron and Steel.

(2) Oils etc. The value of direct imports of this group, which includes Petrol, Kerosene and Diesel oil, has in the five years fallen steadily from £8.5m. to £2.4m. (The import of petrol, kerosene and diesel oil from Western Australia has risen from £5,000 in 1953/54 to £9.1m. in 1957/58).

The proportions which principal items bear to total imports have not changed greatly since before the war. Apart from the variation in the oils group, the most marked fluctuations in percentages have been rises for Machines and Machinery (from 15.6% in 1938/39 to 22.0% in 1957/58) and Vehicles (from 7.4% to 11.6%).

Exports - Quantity.

This table shows quantities of selected items of export, the values of which are shown in table 5. Details of quantities of other items shown in table 5 are not included, because the number of different units of quantity used for various manufactured products does not permit suitable grouping.

The export of butter and cheese in 1957/58 was the lowest for the five years under review. (Production of milk in 1957/58 was 81m. gallons, compared with 85m., 91m., 90m. and 90m. gallons respectively from 1953/54 to 1956/57).

Changes in production of commodities do not necessarily cause corresponding changes in exports in that year. For example, grain yields fell considerably as a result of the 1957 drought, the wheat yield in 1957/58 being only 14.9m. bushels, a fall of 52.6% from the previous year, while in the same period, the barley yield fell by 48.4% to 17.6m. bushels, but in the same period, exports of wheat fell by only 26.7%, and barley by only 6.6%.

Exports - Value

These details are set out in two tables - the first showing values of selected items of export and the second showing values according to type of commodity. Over 90% of the value of exports comes from the three groups Agricultural, Pastoral and Mining and the commodities with the greatest value in each group are:- Agricultural - wheat, barley and flour: Pastoral - wool, sheepskins and meat (lamb): Mining - lead, zinc and silver.

The value per unit of quantity of five of these commodities has remained reasonably constant during the five years under review, the remainder varied as follows:- The average value for wheat was approximately 18/- per bushel in 1953/54 and 14/- for the succeeding years and for flour £38 per ton in 1953/54 and £28 to £31 for the remainder of the period. The average value of lead rose from £5/9/- per cwt. in 1953/54 to £6/17/- in 1956/57 and fell sharply to £4/16/- in 1957/58. The value of wool fluctuated between 7/2d. and 5/1d. per lb. over the period.
